

IPG book :

Gouvernance autochtone: reconfiguration d'un avenir collectif, Nouvelles perspectives et processus émergents

I am very proud to present the first joint publication of our research group! First in a series of studies on Aboriginal governance, this book is the fruit of individual reflections, and also collective work conducted over the last 4 years on the Indigenous Peoples and Governance project.

The objective of this book is to initiate a revival on strategies and forms of governance, in order to overcome the obvious ways of seeing the concept of governance, particularly when applied to Aboriginal people. Each of the contributions made in this book offers a different approach to the parameters and conditions of Aboriginal governance. But more so, and that's what makes the book that much more original, is the creation of an opportunity to rediscover the ideas and the paradigms that traditionally serve to define governance; to find other intellectual dynamic models and solutions we could offer.

Pierre Noreau
Scientific director of the project

COLLABORATION OF

Michael Asch
Thomas McMorrow
Josée Gauthier
Ghislain Otis
Jacques Leroux
Caroline Plançon
Étienne Le Roy

Sylvie Vincent
Marc-Urbain Proulx
Roderick Macdonald
Patrick Macklem

Erratum

An error was made in the last Wampum regarding the communications of two reserchers. Here is what you should have seen:

Jean Leclair (University of Montreal): "Federal Thinking: A Compost Suitable for Managing an Uncertain World. "

Jean-François Gaudreault-Desbiens (University of Montreal): The Reconfiguration of the Fiduciary Obligation in a Federalist Perspective: The Potential relevance of Federal Loyalty? A Human Rights Perspective to Indigenous Governance.

Vous recevez ce bulletin car vous êtes inscrits à la liste de diffusion du projet Peuples autochtones et Gouvernance de l'Université de Montréal. An English version of this web letter is available. Please contact : eric.cardinal@umontreal.ca

Unsubscribe <<Email Address>> from this list | Forward to a friend | Update your profile

Our mailing address is:

Cardinal Communication
Kahnawake Business Complex, 2e étage
Kahnawake, Québec J0L 1B0

Add us to your address book

Copyright (C) 2009 Cardinal Communication All rights reserved.

The MailChimp logo is displayed in a white, rounded rectangular box. The text "MailChimp" is written in a blue, cursive script font.